

J.R. Slosar, Ph.D.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- 1990-Present Private Practice, Irvine, CA. Outpatient practice in Psychology, including children, families, adults. Psychological Assessment & Forensic Evaluations of children and adults. On expert witness panel for Superior Court of Orange County in areas of criminal, juvenile and family law.
- 1996-2004 Administrative Clinician at Health & Human Services Group for national federal contract with the Drug Enforcement Administration. Responsible for all clinical and administrative aspects of federal contract. Contract is for the Employee Assistance Program of employees and families of DEA agency, which includes trauma response and a preventive/education training program.
- 1995-Present Chapman University, Orange, CA.
Adjunct Assistant professor
Have taught undergraduate and graduate classes in main campus at Orange and also online.
Classes taught in programs of Psychology and Education and include: Child Psychology, Abnormal Psychology, Intro Psychology, Developmental Psychology, Research Methods, and student's final Capstone Research projects.
- 1992-1996 Health & Human Services Group, Mission Viejo, CA.
Administrative Clinician for HHSG, an Employee Assistance Program. Oversight of clinicians as required by terms of federal Contract with Immigration & Naturalization Service (INS).

EAP work includes threat assessment, and psychotherapy with individuals, couples, families, and trauma victims.

- 1990-1995 Young Life Enrichment Program, Huntington Beach, CA. Individual and group psychotherapy, psychological evaluations, staff training, and program consultation for group home boys, ages 10-18, referred by the Department of Social Services and Probation Department of Orange County.
- 1991-1996 Villa Millard Board and Care, Fullerton, CA. Individual and Group psychotherapy for adult residents diagnosed with serious mental illness/schizophrenia, referred by the Orange County Department of Social Services. Includes psychological evaluations and program consultation.
- 1990-1991 Western Youth Service, Garden Grove, CA. Staff Psychologist. Part Time position as Psychologist Team Leader for AB 3632 evaluations of children identified as high risk (SED) and referred to Orange County Mental Health by school districts.
- 1987-1990 Family Solutions, Orange, CA. Supervising Psychologist. Direct Clinical service, psychological evaluations, case review and planning, staff training, research development, and supervision of clinical staff. Organization has 10 residential facilities with referrals from Social Services and Probation Department of Orange County for reasons of physical and sexual abuse, neglect and abandonment.
- 1979-1987 Dawson Educational Center, La Mirada, CA. Staff Psychologist Individual and group therapy with children with learning, emotional, and behavior problems. Includes psychological evaluations. Consultation with teachers and administrators on effective behavior management strategies. In-services and seminars for teachers. Supervision of interns.

EDUCATION:

- 1974 Jacksonville University, Jacksonville, Florida,
B.S., Psychology. Magna Cum Laude Graduate.
- 1976 Wichita State University, Wichita, Kansas, M.A., Clinical Psychology.
- 1981 University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA.,
Ph.D. Counseling Psychology.

ADDITIONAL EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- 1991-92 Southern California Psychoanalytic Society, Los Angeles,
CA. Advanced Training Program in Psychodynamic
Psychotherapy.
- 1989-90 One year course, Object Relations Perspective. Los Angeles
Institute & Society for Psychoanalytic Studies.
- 1988-90 One Year Training Program. Structural Family Therapy,
University of California, Irvine, Dept. of Psychiatry and Behavioral Science.
- 1994 Critical Incident Stress Debriefing Training (CISD).
- 1997 American Red Cross Disaster Mental Health Services Course.
- 1997-98 Seminars/Instruction at International Association of Object
Relations, San Diego, CA.
- 1997 Developing Community Crisis Response Teams; National Organization For Victim Assistance, Washington, D.C.

LICENSES AND CREDENTIALS:

Licensed Clinical Psychologist, California, #PSY 9158
Approved Clinician, Orange County Probation Dept., 2007

Qualified Medical Examiner (QME) in California, 2012.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

Orange County Psychological Association, President 2004
California Psychological Association, Board Member 2007
California Coalition of Ethical Mental Health Care, Board
Member 1995-98.
CAPP, California Association of Psychology Providers-
President 1998

PUBLICATIONS:

Staff Training Manual for Group Home Residential Treatment
Services for Children and Adolescents. IDS Publishing,
Worthington, Ohio, 1995.

*Financing Mechanisms in the Delivery of Mental Health Care
Services: Widgets or Wisdom?* (Main Author)
APA Division 39 Newsletter, February, 1996.

*Financing Mechanisms in the Delivery of Mental Health Care
Services: Widgets or Wisdom?* (Main Author). 1997 Source
Book for Managed Mental Healthcare, Faulkner & Gray,
New York, NY, Sept.1996, 155-64.

Mental Health Treatment: Going in the Wrong Direction. ACA
News, June, 1999, p. 7-8.

Combating Workplace Violence. ACA News, January, 2000,
p. 44-47.

The Role of Perfectionism in Law Enforcement Suicide. Paper
Presented on Sept. 23, 1999, at FBI Quantico Symposium on Law Enforcement Suicide. In: Law Enforcement & Suicide, ed.
By Sheehan & Warren, FBI Academy, Behavioral Sciences Unit,
Quantico, VA., 2002, p. 539-49.

The Culture of Excess: How America Lost Self Control and Why We Need to Redefine Success. Praeger/ABC-CLIO, 2009.