

Jeffrey Kropf, Ph.D.

California Board of Psychology License No. PSY12969

Education:

1991 Ph.D.
California School of Professional Psychology
(APA-approved)
Major: Clinical Psychology

1984 B.A., Magna cum Laude
UCLA
Major: Psychology

Experience:

1991-Present Psychological Consultant

Activities include:

- conduct mental health evaluations including evaluations pursuant to PC 2962 (MDO evaluations)
- provide testimony in MDO hearings and trials
- develop and provide mental health training

8/00-12/17

Senior Psychologist, Supervisor
CA Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation
Mentally Disordered Offender (MDO) Unit

Responsibilities include:

- conduct MDO evaluations and other forensic mental health evaluations
- provide testimony in MDO hearings and trials (testified as expert witness in Alameda, Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino, San Luis Obispo counties)
- develop and provide MDO training to CDCR, BPH, DSH, and contract clinical and custody staff
- supervise and manage CDCR, BPH, contract MDO evaluators
- develop policies and procedures for CDCR MDO Unit

10/99-8/00

Forensic Psychologist
CA Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation
MDO Unit

Responsibilities included:

- conduct MDO evaluations
- provide testimony in MDO hearings and trials

1993-1999

Staff Psychologist
California Youth Authority
Heman G. Stark Youth Correctional Facility

Responsibilities included:

- conduct forensic and psychological evaluations
- provide testimony in W&IC 1800 trials
- provide individual and group therapy

1991-1993

Staff Psychologist
Napa State Hospital

1989-1990

Psychology Intern
Loma Linda Veterans Administration Hospital
(APA-approved internship program)