PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a retired correctional professional with over 24 years of service with the Federal Bureau of Prisons. I began my employment in the federal prison system, working from the ground level, and then was promoted to various employment positions of increased responsibility. Through my years in positions of leadership and supervision, I have gained expert managerial and operational knowledge of various security-level correctional facilities. Specifically, I have supervised correctional staff and inmates at the Administrative (jail), Medium, and Minimum-security prisons, including a Mental Health-3 level (high intensity) inmate housing unit.
